

2027 Service Training Schedule

Hamilton Medical offers the following Service Training classes for our current line of ventilators:

HAMILTON-C1/T1/MR1

The three ventilators are consolidated into a single class as the ventilators are pneumatically the same ventilator in different packages to accommodate different needs in the patient care environment. Upon successful completion, attendees will receive a certificate that recognizes training on all three ventilators.

HAMILTON-C3, HAMILTON-G5, and HAMILTON-C6

Upon successful completion, attendees will receive a certificate respective to the ventilator covered in that class.
